2019 FLORIDA STATE CONVENTION STATE WOMAN OF THE YEAR GUIDELINES AND ENTRY FORM

Form will be available on the Website as soon as it is ready.

NEW for 2019 Florida State Convention Woman of the Year:

ALL Current Women of the Year, regardless of her city, area or council affiliation will be eligible for the Florida State Woman of the Year Honor.

With members from so many areas and cities helping to put on this convention, we felt that there was no way to determine who should not be allowed to compete, and therefore contacted International for guidance. International advised us that there are no official guidelines for determining a State Woman of the Year and that most states do not even elect a State Woman of the Year. Therefore, we have chosen to remove the city/area/council restriction from our guidelines. Additional guidelines will be put in place to assure complete anonymity in the judging process. Any questions may be directed to Kelly or Jennifer after the new Woman of the Year guidelines are posted on the website.
